Boy, I wish I looked like "Griff."

A yearbook serves many purposes. It is mostly a history of Perry High during the 1983 school year. The book attempts to record, with photographs and the written word, the highlights. The staff has tried to select shots that will conjure memories common to all students and some memories personal to each individual. In years to come your "history" text will be there to help you recall the friends, event, classes, and sporting contests of 1983.

The 1982 Varsity football season started with high hopes. The season was definitely one to remember. With nearly the entire offense consisting of experienced seniors, and a typical hard hitting Rambler defense, this years edition of the Ramblers provided much excitement in every game. Led by Coach Schanski the Ramblers were a competitive team in every game. Perry placed 2 players, Chris Daniher and Tim DeLau on the ICL first team all league defense, while center Mike Cooper made Honorable mention on offense.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Producing a yearbook involves many different skills. It takes an artistic eye, a competency with words, direction following ability and so forth. But more than any of these it takes perserverance. When the task is just begun, everyone is inspired. Staff is looking forward to a day off for ad sales. The deadlines seem far away. But during the long winter months, people begin to disappear. Only the committed attend work sessions. Only the dedicated stay late into the night to see the job through. It is to those people "I tip my hat". They are the producers of your yearbook. Some special helpers include George Nama, He not only did some photography but some developing as well

Thank you staff! You made this book what it is. You made production a possibility. You made my life a little richer!

BAND

The Perry High School Band takes part in many activities. The concert Band held a Christmas Concert and will hold a Spring Concert on May 22nd. The Concert Band also competes at the District V Festival on March 12th. They will be playing three prepared pieces and one sight reading piece. Weeks before February 19th, groups of musicians started to practice for Solo and Ensemble. The day before every group was cramming in as much practice as possible. Everyone was striving for a one

The Marching Band, led by Mike Hurd as drum major and Michelle Smith as flag captain, performed pre-game and half time at the home football games on Friday nights. A few in the band weathered the wind and rain playing in the pep-band at away games. The pep-band also plays at Friday night home basketball games, playing popular tunes when the action on the court stopped

The Band Parents sponsor a Spagetti Supper before a Friday night football game. They also sponsor an Ice Cream Social. The Band Parents are always trying to better the quality of musicians at PHS.

This years Varsity Basketball team, under second year coach Mr. McDevitt, started off with its 2nd annual Red and White game which found the Whites edging out the Reds in a tough matchup. The season began with a couple tough loses, but the Ramblers got in the winning column by defeating Leslie 68 66 in overtime. From then on it was up and down for the Ramblers, losing games they should have won, and winning games only by a narrow margin. The team maintained good composure throughout the season. An update of seasons end will be in the supplement.

WINTERFEST 1983

Because of the lack of snow, traditional Winterfest activities were changed to indoor games. The frisbee toss, egg toss, orange pass, egg relay, and football free-throw were wound into an extra pep assembly held on Thursday. Friday's pep assembly had the Juniors against the teachers in the tug-o-war. (The faculty were the victors.)

Congratulations to the "First" Perry Girls team to win a League Championship! Five Seniors and four Juniors composed the team. Each player contributed her unique talent to make a successful season. The squad displayed consistent team spirit. This was crucial to the total effort. This program has rapidly improved over the last four years since it began. Highlights of the season included defeating class B Corunna and perennial foes Williamston and Haslett. Coach Bovee encouraged the team by giving the seniors roses at the last home game. Also the fans and parents deserve mention for their support in the girls Ingham County League Championship.

The J.V. Volleyball team was a young team, but played well together. The close match with Williamston left the ladie Ramblers with high hopes for the rest of the season.

Warm-ups are very important and everyone seems to warm-up in their own special way.

Sam and Lisa get set for dismounts.

This is the largest gymnastics team that Perry has ever had. Consequently, many team scores were higher than previous years. The team is very young, mostly Sophomores and Freshmen, which gives the coaches a lot to build on. At this time many Regional Qualifying scores have been awarded to Pamela White and Carole Schmidt, both hoping to do well there.

SCOREBOARD

On December 13, 1982 the senior class suffered a great loss with the death of classmate Susan Smith. The courage that she demonstrated is something that will never be forgotten. We're so very thankful for the memory that we have and will cherish forever.

SUCCESS

If, after I have crossed the great divide,
My hovering spirit, lingering nearby, hears
the comments that my recent passing caused;
I want no sorrow ringing in my ears
But I should like to hear the low pitched voice of whom I have touched in passing say,
"My heart has more of sunshine than before,
Because, in life, her footsteps came my way."
If I could know that I have the means,
Some lonely life to cheer, or cheer, or bless
As I walk down the long and rugged trail.
Then I would feel that I have known success

Leona Little.

As we close this book there are so many great things that have taken place in our world and that play a major part in our lives!
